

What are your top 3 priorities for community safety in Herefordshire?

Better policing

Hate crime

Youth opportunities - groups, safe places.

Lighting

Improved youth services

Roads and cycling

Women and girls feeling safe to exercise outdoors

Domestic violence Mental health
Road safety

What are your top 3 priorities for community safety in Herefordshire?

Job opportunities

Support groups for offenders

Positive activity for young people

Safety of young children in public areas to allow independence without risk
Scams not just online
Hate crime

Road Safety

Reduce drugs in young people

Youth provision, roads/cycling safety, safer policing

Protection of elderly and vulnerable people through identification and prevention
Youth engagement, prevention of ASB and connecting communities
County lines prevention/drugs/child exploitation

What are your top 3 priorities for community safety in Herefordshire?

Support groups for victims and offenders

Visible policing

Women can go out at night unmolested
Greater presence of night time support for youngsters and vulnerable adults
Community support for each other

Safe places for children and young people to go
Better cycle safety
Improved early support for parents

Safer, happier,, resilient communities

Domestic violence
Mental health
Youth provision

Youth support and activities
Opportunities for unemployed people
Mental health support

To make sure individuals know the correct passages of signposting and help. To ensure community groups are safeguarded by community leads.
To make information readily accessible

What are your top 3 priorities for community safety in Herefordshire?

Protecting vulnerable young people
Reducing domestic violence
Support groups for victims and offenders

Safe places for young people

Substance misuse, homelessness,

Roads and cycling
Positive activity for young people

Feeling safe on the street
Lighting in rural communities

Reducing drug use by young people and more education for them

Trans rights and trans safety

Policing - especially in rural areas.
Better roads & public transport links.
More employment opportunities